The case against Scott has been taken up and is being investigated. The probabilities are that it will be concluded to-morrow.

Mrs. Parrish, who has been quite ill, is now much improved and it is believed she will be entirely recovered in a few days.

The little son of Mr. John Coates who has been quite ill for several days, is reported a little better.

If you owe this Office anything please come forward and pay up, as we need it.

The candidates are daily becoming more numerous, and they are the most pleasant people now in existence.

A full account of the proceedings of our Circuit Court will appear in our next issue.

Circuit Court will run considerably into next week. Our farmers are anxious to get off and it is hoped the term will be cut as short as possible.

Shelton & Moquin has commenced work, and will go to any part of the country to paint and hang wallpaper, just as cheap as they will do it in Bolivar. At Swinebroad old stand. Give them a call. Prints and paper always on hand.

Mr. C. C. McCall and Miss Nettie Hughes, both of Jackson, were married at that place on Thursday of last week. The groom is a promising young business man of Jackson and the bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. D. W. Hughes the well-known jeweler of Jackson and Memphis.

Mr. James Armour, died at his home 9 miles east of Bolivar on the 10th inst, in the 88th year of his age. He had lived in this county for sixty years and was highly respected by all who knew him.

All magistrates are required to attend the quarterly court in April as a Superintendent of Public Schools will have to be elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. A. J. Coates.

We call attention to the announcement of Mr. John A. Tipton, for Attorney General, in this issue. Mr. Tipton is a member of the Tipton County Bar, and is a lawyer of fine promise. His character, both as a lawyer, and as a gentleman of integrity and worth, is well known, especially to the voters of Tipton county where he was born and raised, who, we understand, will give him a hearty support. He is a gentleman of fine appearance, and of a genial nature. He will make the acquaintance of as many of our people as possible between now and the election, and if honored by the people with the position he seeks, will make an honest, capable public servant.

Mr. Paul T. Jones has determined to make the race for Register of this county. Mr. Jones is well known to most of the voters of Hardeman, having resided in the county from early youth. He has always sustained the reputation of being an upright, honorable gentleman, and will conduct the canvass upon high-toned, honorable principles. Between now and the election he will call upon as many of the voters of the county as possible, and present his claims to the position he seeks. Mr. Jones is well qualified for the duties of register, and if elected will give to the same his undivided personal attention. He has never held a public office, and was never a candidate for any public position before. See his formal announcement in the proper column.

We are authorized to state that Mr. G. G. Adams is a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk. Mr. Adams has acquired an enviable reputation for promptness and efficiency in the discharge of the duties of his office during the four years he has filled the position of Circuit Court Clerk and the people of the county cannot secure a more faithful public servant than he has been. By his uniform kindness and consideration for the rights of litigants and witnesses, he has made a host of friends who will stand by him and see that he fills the place now occupied by him for at least one more term. If re-elected he will give his personal attention to the business of the office, and will discharge the same with the same fidelity which has characterized his official conduct during his present term. See his formal announcement in another column.

We call attention to the announcement of Judge T. C. Muse, for Chancellor in this issue. Judge Muse has been judge of the common law and chancery court of Madison county for the last four years, and occupied the position of Chancellor in this division from about 1868 to 1870. While Judge Muse is a republican in politics, he does not believe that politics should be brought into judicial elections, and does not base his claims to the position upon political grounds, but upon the ground of his fitness for the place he seeks. Personally he is a clever gentleman.

We are authorized to announce Mr. G. G. Adams a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk of this county. Election the first Thursday in August next.

A Disastrous Fire.

Monday morning last about 2:30 o'clock a. m. the valuable mill of Mr. W. R. Kearney 2 miles West of Bolivar was discovered to be on fire. The flames had progressed to such a stage as to render it impossible to extinguish them and in a short while this splendid property was in ashes. Mr. Kearney was satisfied it was the work of an incendiary and began at once to investigate for traces of the criminal. He soon discovered a mule track going west, and following this they went to the house of Oliver McNeal, col., about 2 miles west of the mill. The negro house was searched by his permission, but no evidence of the crime was discovered. He then left Oliver's house, soon struck the mule tracks again, and in a short time discovered several sacks of meal and a sack of flour concealed near Oliver's house. So soon as Oliver discovered that the meal and flour had been found, he broke for the timber and made good his escape. Sheriff Yopp and Deputy Sheriff Hudson hunted for him all that night, but failed to come up with the wretch. The negro went to some of his kinspeople's houses south of town, and told them that he had robbed and burned Mr. Kearney's mill, and was going to Mississippi. It is to be hoped he may be caught, and given the full extent of the law. The mill was, perhaps, the finest mill in the county and a total loss.

A gentleman from Atlanta, recently traveling on a coast line from San Francisco via Vancouver's Island to Portland, Ore., on his arrival at Victoria called at a drug store to purchase something for a disordered stomach, felt himself at home, and when he saw several boxes of S. S. S. on the counter of the drug store. The proprietor told him that Swift's Specific was one of the staple articles in his trade.

"I have found the wonder of the nineteenth century," remarked a man from Ohio a few days ago to one of our druggists, "and it is a proprietor of a patent medicine who told me that his remedy was not suitable to my case, and advised me not to take it. I called at the laboratory of the Swift's Specific Company, and consulted their physician with the above result. I was convinced so thoroughly that their Specific is a good medicine that I have bought a case and sent it to my cousin, who has the scrofula. They told me it would cure scrofula, and I believe it to be true."

S. S. S. is a harmless remedy. It is a reliable remedy for all disorders of the blood, and cleanses the system by forcing the impurities out through the pores of the skin. It is now sold in dry form, and can be prepared at home. Price 50 cents per package. We advise those who have been worn down with mercury and potash nostrums to use the dry form.
